Secret.

No.F.199/1940.

From The Secretary to the Resident in Mysore.

To The Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

Dated, Bangalore, 31st July 1940.

Subject:- Hoarding of rupee coins.

Sir,

I am directed to enclose a copy of a draft notification which the Central Government propose shortly to issue to prevent the practice of hoarding silver coin. It consists, as will be seen, of an amendment to the Defence of India Rules and further communication will be made regarding the date of its issue in British India. On receipt of this it is requested that a similar notification may kindly be issued in the Mysore State, under its Defence of India Rules.

2. It is the intention of the Government of India to take action against only large hoarders, all possible steps being taken to ensure that ordinary poor persons are not harassed for possessing a few silver rupees. When issuing its notification it is hoped that the Mysore State will cause the legislation to be interpreted in the same manner as it will be interpreted and applied in British India.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,

Ag. Secretary to the Resident in Mysore.

Defence Co-ordination Department.

NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 of the Defence of India Act, 1939 (XXXV of 1939), the Central Government is pleased to direct that the following further amendments shall be made in the Defence of India Rules, namely:-

In rule 90 of the sai

(i) After sub-rule (2) the following sub-rule shall be inserted, namely:-

x date to be given later - 15 days after issue of the notification.

"(2a). If any person is on or before the x in possession of coin in excess of his personal or business requirements for the time being he shall on or before the said date dispose of the amount of the excess by exchanging the same for notes and, if as the result of subsequent acquisition of coin, any person becomes possessed after the said date of coin in excess of his personal or business requirements for for the time being he shall similarly dispose of the excess within 48 hours of his becoming possessed of the same."

(ii) To sub-rule (3) the following shall be added, namely:-

"and in the case of a contravention of the provisions of sub-rule (2a) the Court may direct the forfeiture of the whole or any part of the excess in respect of which the contravention has bee committed."

Secretary to the Government of India.
